Days before poll, Israel PM launches major West Bank military operation

Comes as govt and opposition remain in dead heat, with neither expected to secure majority

HEBRON

PRIME Minister Benjamin Netanyahu announced a major military operation in the occupied West Bank on Friday after Palestinian gunmen killed two soldiers in an attack near Hebron, days ahead of Israeli elections in which security has been a central focus.

Netanyahu is locked in a tight race to keep his job in Tuesday's vote, having campaigned on promises to keep Israelis safe, and he and his right-wing allies visited the scene of the attack to pledge an even harder line on West Bank militancy.

The first steps would see Hebron residents displaced, homes searched and "terrorist infrastructure" destroyed, the premier said, threatening operations on a scale unseen since Israel first occupied the Palestinian territory in 1967.

Militant group Hamas, without claiming responsibility, praised the attack as a "heroic operation" and called on supporters to carry out more.

A Hebron-based AFP photographer heading to another assignment witnessed the gun battle break out at the Farsh al-Hawa checkpoint between soldiers and two Palestinian men armed with a handgun and an automatic rifle, with Israeli forces eventually shooting the attackers dead.

The army later said that two of its soldiers "fell in combat in the Judea Junction" area, with three others wounded.

WAR WATCH

Netanyahu in a statement lauded the soldiers' response, crediting them with having "prevented what could have been a major attack" and ordering a lockdown in the West Bank. Visiting Hebron later in the day, the premier said he and Defence Minister Israel Katz were "considering a very extensive IDF (army) operation in Judea and Samaria, such as has not been carried out since" the 1967 Arab-Israeli war in which Israel seized the West Bank.

"The IDF is ready to execute it and we will set the timing, but it is on the way," he added.

The first step would see Israeli forces "enter the neighbourhood from which the terrorists came, evacuate the residents, go from house to house, and destroy the terrorist infrastructure".

He said the military would apply a model previously used in refugee camps in the northern West Bank, scene of a large-scale operation launched in January 2025 that the UN said forcibly displaced thousands.

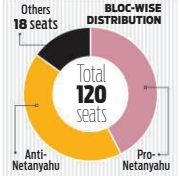

The military said it had "launched offensive counter-terrorism operations in the Hebron area", adding that troops were raiding homes of the suspects and others.

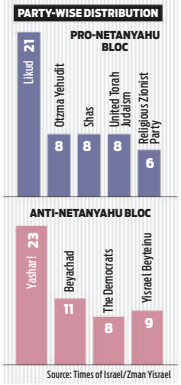

Far-right Israeli Finance Minister Bezalel Smotrich, who also holds a position within the defence ministry, later announced that building demolitions were underway.

In a video from the area, he said authorities were "sending an unequivocal message to our enemies: if you mess with the Jews, you will pay a very painful price."

Earlier in the day he had called for a large-scale military offensive in the West Bank "exactly like in Gaza". AFP

Melania secures truce in battered Ukraine city: WH

WASHINGTON

US First Lady Melania Trump said in a surprise announcement Friday she had brokered a localized ceasefire between Russia and Ukraine in the ravaged city of Oleshky, where citizens are trapped and running out of food.

Residents in the Russian-occupied city would be allowed to choose to evacuate to either Ukraine or Russia under the truce, which would begin on October 29, said a statement from her office.

"The situation in Oleshky is dire. Oleshky is a front-line war city on the brink of disaster," the 56-year-old wife of US President Donald Trump said in the statement. "It was abundantly clear that without my intervention, the possibility to bring humanitarian aid into the city and to evacuate the elderly would be impossible," she said.

The Kremlin welcomed Melania Trump's "humanitarian" involvement, while Russia's army chief said it would observe the truce from 0100 GMT on October 27. There was no immediate reaction from Ukraine.

The announcement comes a year after the Slovenian-born former model stunned the world by revealing she had established a channel of communication with Russian President Vladimir Putin to reunify children separated from their parents by the war.

It also comes as President Trump steps up efforts to end Moscow's four-and-a-half-year war on Ukraine — largely by pivoting back towards Putin and away from Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelensky.

Melania Trump

Trump praised his wife, saying the Oleshky ceasefire was "her initiative" and came after her office contacted both sides. "What she wants to do is save children," he told reporters.

Asked if she could participate in trilateral Ukraine-Russia-US peace talks that are due to restart next month, Trump replied: "No, but it's not the worst idea I've ever heard."

Melania Trump said she had worked with the Russian and Ukrainian leaderships on the Oleshky plan.

She said tha civilian leaders from both countries would "work together" and visit the devastated city to assess aid needs. "Residents who wish to evacuate will receive coordinated support and transportation to their preferred destination. I anticipate some will want to go to Russia, and some to Ukraine," she said. She added that she an "impartial US media organization" would "accompany and document Russian and Ukrainian teams on the ground throughout the process" to ensure residents' wishes were respected. AFP

Tanker with Russian diesel heads to US

MOSCOW

A tanker filled with Russian diesel is headed for New York, maritime trackers and the Kremlin confirmed Friday, after the US eased sanctions in a deal that shocked Ukraine and its European allies.

The ship left Russia's Baltic port of Primorsk overnight, after loading nearly 300,000 barrels of diesel at the oil terminal there, Kpler said. It was due to reach New York around November 7.

Kremlin spokesman Dmitry Peskov confirmed that the "first tanker set sail for its intended recipients, its buyers". "Further shipments will continue at a steady pace," he said.

Trump says Iran making fake attack claims to raise oil price

US President Donald Trump said Iran was fabricating reports of attacks on oil tankers and naval mines in the Strait of Hormuz to drive up oil prices ahead of the midterm elections in the US. "Iran is doing everything they can to drive up the price of Oil prior to the US Midterm Election," Trump wrote on Truth Social.

His comment comes a day after Iran said it attacked seven tankers in the Strait of Hormuz. Oil prices traded at five-month highs on Friday, with benchmark crude Brent rising above $116 a barrel. Agencies
